At the Novelty.

The famous comedy trio—Charlie Chaplin, Patty and Mabel—appear at the Novelty theater during the first haif of the week. The shoes of the three famous movie artists, however, are filled by Thomas Flynn, Edward Marse and Mary Agnes Halin in the order named. Flynn as Chaplin is easily the star performer of the company. He is an exact double of the famous slap stick comedian. Other acts at the Novelty are "Getting his goat," a singing and talking skit by Mason and Murray; a singing turn by the Five Corks—minstrel men, and songs and dances by the two Adairs. songs and dances by the two Adairs.

Besides the four acts of vaudeville, the bill includes a four part Lubin fea-ture—"A Man's Making."
